

OnyxPro

- ERP solutions to meet business organizations' needs.
- Includes various groups of automatic processing systems in financial, administrative and other specialized fields.
- ERP systems handle all functions of institutional building in different activities of commercial, industrial, and service organizations and control work.
- Meet multiple organizations, branches, activities and projects in unified and holding business management.
- Carry out outreach tasks such as displaying reports, collection, inventory and others via mobile applications that are linked to systems in secured methods.
- Developed with Oracle databases can be installed in the language that the client wants (English / Arabic / French / Turkish).
- In absolute trust, businessmen and companies found in OnyxPro solutions for their administrative and organizational problems, and founded their success stories with OnyxPro

For more information: www.onyxproerp.com