

Computerization Projects

Ultimate has wide experience in implementing special computerization projects for enterprises either governmental, NGOs, or private. It has many successful experience in the Arab world as it succeeded to implement according to open competition, such as:

- Integrated computerization project for the International symposium of Muslim Youth activities, related the OIC in K.S.A.
- AFMIS project for Yemeni government, and it is used currently for drawing up, implementing the state budget, and the final accounts in state ministries. This projected was implemented with the supervision of the Word Bank.
- Integrated computerization project with a number of managerial and financial for free markets company in Republic of the Sudan.